ACCIDENT & HEALTH – ‘SPECIALITY RISKS’

[9 November 2011]: DUAL Australia Pty Ltd is pleased to announce the launch of our Accident and Health ‘Specialty Risks’ capability. DUAL Accident and Health ‘Specialty Risks’ will provide the Australian market with local underwriting capacity and expertise to manage complex and specialty Accident and Health risks.

Importantly DUAL offers bespoke tailored solutions, a high level of underwriting support and assistance in effective marketing where required. ‘Specialty Risks’ occupations may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Amateur and Professional sports;
- High risk sports such as rugby, equestrian, football and motor;
- Divers – Professional and recreational;
- Off-shore;
- High net worth individuals;
- Freelance and self employed;
- Media and entertainment; and
- Other specialised occupations & industries.

Clinton Evans, National Accident and Health Manager, comments:

“In developing our Specialty Risks capability we are responding to an ever-changing people risk market. Employee risk evolves so we must adapt. Repeating ‘old school’ underwriting mantras must become a thing of the past. Simply relying on perceived risk is no longer acceptable, we must ask questions and look for ways to find a solution and DUAL Accident and Health Specialty Risks is designed to do just that without forcing broker’s off-shore to look for solutions. We are very excited with this initiative and look forward to working with our valued partners.”

Our Accident and Health capacity is strategically aligned with Lloyd’s via Arch Syndicate 2012 and Market Syndicate 3000.
